
Title: Lab notes

Author: Filberto the Tinker

It took me forever, but I have successfully made a tuning fork! I went and showed Gabriel Piete, and he verified it's just like the one made by Ironhand!

I left for Malas, and have collected enough gem fragments so that I can be rich for the rest of my life. However, I don't feel it would be wise for this superior tuning fork to fall into the wrong hands (as if any are more wrong than mine!).

I will travel to Ilshenar one more time, and construct in the lost city of Montor a method to travel to a secret place. I know the perfect place. No man or woman will ever find this Shadow Tuning Fork.
